

Ask Dave

Q. Our safest driver got a speeding ticket but we challenged the violation in court and the court threw it out. But the negative score in the unsafe driving BASIC for this driver is still there! How can we remove a violation that was thrown out in court?

A. Unfortunately, you cannot. FMCSA continues to count on-the-road violations as a negative CSA2010 score even if the courts have dismissed the charge. The only option is to encourage all drivers to be careful and avoid all potential violations.
