

GOT POWER LINES?

Installing power line hose in areas where mobile equipment or raised truck beds travel under electric lines is one way to reduce the risk of electrocution and property damage. Contact your local industrial electric contractor for information about installing these in your operation.

Produced by the Institute of Scrap Recycling Industries

www.isri.org

www.isrisafety.org

Comments/questions?

isrisafety@isri.org

December 13, 2011